I. Background

Since the adoption of a revised Independent Comprehensive Articulation Agreement between the North Carolina Community College System (NCCCS) and the North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities (NCICU) in 2015, the two organizations have worked collaboratively to strengthen the transfer relationship and to provide greater opportunity for students. With the selection of North Carolina by Council of Independent Colleges (CIC) and the awarding of a grant by the Teagle Foundation, the process has accelerated specifically in psychology and sociology. Accordingly, NCCCS and NCICU institutions have been focused on forging productive, collaborative relationships founded on the common goal of best serving students pursuing bachelor's degrees in these two disciplines in North Carolina's institutions of higher education.

This articulation agreement, jointly created by the NCICU and NCCCS partnership, and signatory institutions, is a result of the work done under the Teagle Foundation grant to CIC. It encompasses work done for transferring students with an Associate in Arts or an Associate in Science. The Articulation Agreement is focused on facilitating transfer for students who begin studies at a community college and then transfer to one of the signatory NCICU Bachelor of Arts programs focused on these disciplines. There are multiple Bachelor of Arts-granting institutions within NCICU whose majors include sociology and psychology. While the individual names of these Bachelor of Arts degrees may vary slightly among NCICU institutions, for the sake of consistency and clarity this agreement refers to all four-year degrees as "Bachelor Degrees" within this document. The specific title of each degree will be listed in Appendix A, under Participating Programs.

II. Purpose and Rationale

The goal of this agreement is the creation of a more seamless and rational transfer process for community college students.

This document presents a uniform, academic progression agreement that will promote educational advancement opportunities for Associate degree graduates transferring between North Carolina community colleges and the signatory institutions of the North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities in order to complete a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology or Sociology or a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology. It describes a progression degree plan that includes required general education and prerequisite courses that are acceptable to all signatory programs.

Community College graduates must meet the admission requirements and associated timelines as published by each Bachelor degree program. Applicants to four-year institutions should follow the regular application process for those institutions.

III. Policies

The Articulation Agreement is made between the State Board of the North Carolina Community College System and signatory NCICU institutions. The agreement includes only those institutions in both systems that sign it, since the agreement is developed under the Teagle/CIC grant. However, it is the intention of both the State Board of the North Carolina Community College System and NCICU to encourage other institutions, which were not involved in the grant-funded project, to join the agreement as soon as they wish once it is signed.

A. Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee (ABITC)

Authority to interpret and make changes in this agreement rests with the Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee (ABITC). The ABITC is an ad-hoc eight-member, committee co-chaired by the Chief Academic Officer (CAO) of the North Carolina Community College System and the President of North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities (or their designees). The CAO and President will also appoint the remaining members from their sectors. Questions concerning this agreement should be directed to the appropriate system's CAO with an explanation of the institutional policy that may (appear to) conflict with the agreement. The CAO will forward unresolved questions to the ABITC for resolution. Each entity will appoint one ex-officio non-voting member of the ABITC. For further details, see Appendices B and C.

B. Transfer Credit Appeal

Transferring students who perceive that the terms of this agreement have not been honored may follow the Transfer Credit Appeal Process as outlined in Appendix D.

IV. Regulations

A. Transfer of Credits

This Articulation Agreement establishes the procedures governing the transfer of credits for students who graduate from the relevant North Carolina Community College programs and apply to the relevant Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science programs at signatory NCICU institutions. This Articulation Agreement does not address admission to a specific institution or Bachelor of Arts or Science program within an institution. Students should follow an individual institution's admissions process.

1. Eligibility

To be eligible for the transfer of credits under this Articulation Agreement, an applicant must earn an Associate degree in a signatory North Carolina Community

College with a GPA of at least 2.0 and a grade of C or better in all transfer courses. An applicant must meet the receiving institutions admissions requirements.

The student's program of study must meet the criteria set forth in the curriculum standard as defined in Appendix E.

2. Procedures governing transfer

- a. The agreement enables students who have graduated from a NCCCS institution with the relevant Associates degree to complete a common list of courses that meet the entrance requirements at programs at signatory NCICU institutions. NCICU institution admissions are competitive; therefore, no student is guaranteed admission to a specific program.
- b. A student who completes a relevant degree with a GPA of at least 2.0 and a grade of C or better in the courses listed in Appendix E and meets the receiving institution's admissions requirements will have fulfilled the Bachelor of Arts or Science program entry requirements, and all courses in the Universal General Education Transfer Component will transfer with course equivalency to fulfill general education requirements. This agreement does not exempt students from meeting the minimum admissions requirement.
- c. Graduates holding the relevant Associate degree will receive at least 60 semester hours of academic credit for courses with a grade of C or better toward the appropriate Bachelor of Arts or Science degree upon admission to a signatory NCICU institution.

3. Certification of the Associate degree completion Certification of completion of the Associate degree is the responsibility of the community college at which the courses were completed. Transcript identification of the Universal General Education Transfer Component Courses is also the responsibility of the community college at which the courses were completed.

4. Transfer of Courses not originated at North Carolina community colleges

Transfer courses that do not originate in a North Carolina Community College or signatory NCICU institution may be used under this Articulation Agreement with the following stipulations:

- a. Courses must be completed at a regionally accredited institution of higher education;
- b. Courses must meet general education requirements; and
- c. Courses may total no more than 14 hours of general education course credit.
- d. If the courses are used to complete the Associate degree, the courses will transfer as a part of the degree.

5. Transfer of Advanced Placement (AP) course credit

Advanced Placement (AP) course credits, awarded for a score of three or higher, are acceptable as part of a student's successfully completed Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree under the ICAA. Students who receive AP course credit at a community college, but do not complete the Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree will have AP credit awarded on the basis of the senior institution's AP policy.

B. Impact of this Agreement on other articulation agreements

This Agreement takes precedence over bilateral articulation agreements established between signatory NCICU institutions and the North Carolina Community College System but does not necessarily preclude such agreements. This Agreement is designed and intended to be fully compliant with the existing Comprehensive Articulation Agreement between the North Carolina Community College System and signatory NCICU institutions; its intent is to make clear to students intending to major in sociology or psychology that the NCICU institutions desire to enroll Community College graduates and to map out specific pathways (see Appendix E) to facilitate such transfers. Additionally, this agreement specifically includes a commitment by its signatories to work together to enhance academic advising and administrative procedures and policies (such as student financial assistance) to facilitate such transfers.

Institution-to-institution articulation agreements that fall within the parameters of this agreement and enhance transferability of students from community colleges to senior institutions are acceptable. Institutional agreements conflicting with this agreement are not permitted.

Appendix B

Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee Procedures

Articulation between the North Carolina Community College System (NCCCS) and signatory North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities (NCICU) is a dynamic process. To ensure the currency of the Articulation Agreement, occasional modifications to that agreement may be necessary. The Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee (ABITC) will receive requests for modification only upon the recommendation of the chief academic officer of the NCCCS or NCICU. Because the modification process involves faculty and administrative review, this process may require up to 12 months for final action. Decisions made by the ABITC will be consistent with all pertinent accreditation standards.

Appendix C

Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee (ABITC) Membership

ABITC members shall serve on an ad hoc basis as cases arise.

The ABITC is an ad-hoc eight-member, committee co-chaired by the Chief Academic Officer (CAO) of the North Carolina Community College System and the President of North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities (or their designees). The CAO and President will also appoint the remaining members from their sectors.

NCCCS Members:

- Four representatives to be appointed by the Chief Academic Officer of NCCCS including:
 - CAO or designee from the NCCCS administration (Non-Voting)
 - Three representatives from the signatory North Carolina Community Colleges

NCICU Members:

- Four representatives to be appointed by the President of the NCICU, including:
 - President or from NCICU Staff (Non-Voting)
 - Three representatives from the NCICU signatory institutions

Appendix D

Independent Articulation Agreement Transfer Credit Appeal Procedure

Guiding Principle: If a student from a North Carolina Community College System (NCCCS) college believes the terms of the Articulation Agreement have not been honored by a signatory NCICU institution to which the student has been admitted, the student may invoke the Articulation Agreement Transfer Credit Appeal Procedure.

Steps in Filing an Appeal

Step #1:

- No later than the last day of classes of the first semester for which admission is offered, the student must submit a Transfer Credit Appeal Form along with any supporting documentation to the appropriate Psychology or Sociology Chair/Executive (or other campus designee) at the signatory NCICU campus to which the student has been admitted. Students first enrolling at the senior institution in a summer session must submit their appeal by the end of the subsequent fall semester.
- The student must specify on the appeal form the specific Articulation Agreement language that is in contention. Appeals that lack this information will not be considered.
- The Psychology or Sociology Chair/Executive (or other campus designee) will review the appeal and respond in writing (email or letter) to the student within 15 business days of receiving the student's appeal.

Step #2:

- If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Psychology or Sociology Chair/Executive (or other campus designee), the student may appeal on the same form to the next designated administrator i.e. Dean/Vice-Provost/Chief Academic Officer (Provost) of the specific signatory NCICU institution within 15 days of written notice of the director's decision.
- The designated administrator will review the appeal and respond in writing (email or letter) to the student within 15 business days of receiving the student's appeal.

Step #3

- If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the designated administrator, the student may appeal to the Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee (ABITC). The student must submit the appeal to the committee within 15 days of the receipt of the Provost's decision. The appeal to the Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee appeals subcommittee should be sent to:

Associate to Bachelor Independent Transfer Committee
North Carolina Independent Colleges &
Universities
530 North Blount Street
Raleigh, NC 27604

The committee will review the appeal and notify the student of the final decision within 10 business days of receiving the appeal.

Articulation Agreement
Transfer Credit Appeal Form

Section 1: Student Information

(to be completed by the student submitting the form)

- The completed form and any supporting documentation must be submitted to the signatory NCICU institution's Psychology or Sociology Chair/Executive no later than the last day of classes of the first semester for which admission is offered or by the end of the subsequent fall semester for students enrolling in the summer.

- Specify the nature of the appeal and cite the specific Articulation Agreement language that is in contention. Appeals that do not include this information cannot be considered.
